

Belly Dancer

VERSE 1

Maddlines

So your thinking your a Christian super model
Cuz you got a really cute face and your body takes the shape of a bottle
And when you walk girls talk and guys stare with their jaws dropped
Married men are in danger like an infant with small pox
You only rock name brands, or should I say designer clothes
And if it don't got a popular label, back to the rack it goes
You enjoy the attention you get from the fellas
But when it comes to girls you even think your reflection is jealous
Your the center of attention with the opposite sex
Calling up Tyra Banks cuz you swear your America's Next
But when i step up in the sanctuary that's when I'm vexed
When pastor says "turn to your neighbor" all I see is your chest
Because your shirt is low and opened it might as well be a target
The church carpet might be red, but it isn't the red carpet
Let me throw this proverb your direction
Like a gold ring in a pigs snout is a beautiful women with no descretion

Hook

Please don't come up in the sanctuary in the same clothes you wore the night before in the club

Christian brothers when you see the bellydancer, fight the temptation and don't give her a hug

The belly dancer (Ohhh) she's a white washed tomb, outside is beautiful but dead within

The belly dancer (Ohhh) when you embrace her love, you are embrassing sin

I aint beauty bashing boo being cute aint a crime
When you and your girls walk by it's like the march of dimes
Cause all of ya'll are perfect 10's when you look at the cover
The type of beauty make a man step on his brother just to thank your mother
What I'm talking about are girls I call butter walk
Butter walk girls? Yeah, cause everything is straight but-her-walk
She strolls into the sanctuary on the hunt like a shark
She knows some guys eyes are in drive but their spirits in park
Now some of that falls on the guys but you aint helping at all
When your clothes are not 1 not 2 but 3 sizes to small
You make Jezebel look like a saint when it comes to making men fall
You say "But I'm a cover girl!" but you don't cover at all

And it's the truth so even though you didn't ask me
There is a difference between cute and classy and borderline trashy
And yo you might be nice but when it comes to romance
Butter walk girls & belly dancers don't give 'em chance
